This article analyzes the essence of the Renaissance concept, as well as the role of women in creating the foundation of the third Renaissance.

The Renaissance, by its very nature, was a historical process that included ideological and cultural development, with the spiritual-enlightenment, economic-political rise of a particular state and society. explained. Examples of such a rise and spiritual-enlightenment awakening are the Central Asian renaissance of the IX-XII, XY-XYI centuries, the European renaissance of the XYI-XII centuries. The formation of humanistic (humanistic) ideas, one of the main features of this period, our scientists continued to drip. Indeed, to the historical sources on the street Renaissance thinkers: Abu Nasr al-Farabi, Al-Khwarizmi, Abu RayhanBeruni, Abu Ali ibnSina studied religious and secular sciences in harmony in the scientific and philosophical heritage, man, promote your dignity 'ibeting. Arranged. As a result, the material and spiritual heritage of this period had a significant impact on the development of science around the world. Explaining the essence of this period, the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Sh. Mirziyoyev said:

“... it is well known that in ancient times the same scientific torch was lit in Greece, and in the second century it reignited in Central Asia. It was during this period that the first renaissance in the twenties came to the heart and nurtured a world of practice that the whole world would recognize. The world-famous scientific and creative discoveries of our great scholars, such as Hussein, Muhammad Khorezmi, Ahmad Fergani, AbayRayhanBeruni, Abu Ali ibn Sino, MaqdudZamakhshari, have had an incomparable impact on the development of mankind. The same can be said about Amir Temur and the Renaissance in the XY-XYI centuries. The culture of Amir Temur, his attention to enlightenment, the conditions written for the general public of science came to the establishment of a strong centralized state and the growth of creative work in this state. Culture, art, science developed. MirzoUlugbek, Ali Kushchi, AlisherNavoi, KamoliddinBehzod, Sharafiddin Ali Yazdi, Khandamir, Mirkhand, Babur ... were born and passed on to their sons in the world civilization.

Today, the heirs of the great spiritual heritage, the Uzbek people have chosen the path of rapid development, laying the foundation for a new Renaissance. It is known that "rapid development" is achieved on the basis of a combination of four factors. “First of all, it will provide access to photos that can be quickly translated. secondly, the need for well-planned development models and a mechanism and "roadmaps" for the continuous implementation of this model, the organization of their work, human resources capable of providing these high-quality images, and fourthly, the translation is it possible , the strength and determination of leaders to lead society. Our country has a debt based on this principle. ” Indeed, the ongoing reforms in Uzbekistan in line with humanitarian traditions and their implementation can serve as a basis for our thinking. The essence of the activity carried out in our society under the principle of "Reform - not for reform, but for the people" serves as the basis of the Eternal Renaissance. In particular, the strategy of the Scriptures adopted in our country and the destruction of its basis to ensure the interests of the people, to guarantee the rights of the poor, to promote the community of new, powerful spiritual nightmares aimed at pleasing people, happy, prosperous give new suggestions for.

Our women, who make up more than 50 percent of the Aral Sea, have a leading role and prestige in implementing the reforms of the new era. There is no diving today because our creative and intelligent women have not used their creative,

March 7, 2019 No. PQ-4235 "Update the guarantees of women's support services and provide information on measures related to the use of force" to ensure creative socio-political activities with women the allocated factors were limited. even when they reach retirement age (55 years), the contract with them may be related to the employment of a large employer until the age of 60 years; if attention is paid to the services of lawyers in cases of violation of gender equality, these services are a sign of increasing state drip; women should be educated on how to help in the field or profession from the definition of labor; preferential loans have been allocated for women engaged in the activities of the event, as a result of which the number of women entrepreneurs has exceeded 14,000 to date.

President of Uzbekistan Sh. Mirziyoyev addressed the 75th session of the UNWTO Assembly online and in Uzbek. He spoke about gender equality with the participation of 11 global issues. doubled. The presence of 32% of women in the Legislative Chamber of the OliyMajlis, 25% in the Senate, and 25% in the Social Councils is a result of their socio-political activity in governing the state. These exhibitions of women, who understand the meaning of life, knowledgeable, active and observant, are the economic economy of the community, the socio-political activity of its citizens, in short, the material and spiritual growth of our society.

In his speech on the occasion of the Day of Teachers and Coaches, the President spoke about the essence of the Third Renaissance: the future of Russia. Kindergarten educators, school teachers, professors, and our scientific and creative intellectuals are the four pillars of the new Renaissance. I am sure that the dear parents will definitely support this period and will be the fifth pillar of the new Renaissance, the fifth pillar. " It is important to strengthen the development of four women so that education is not lost. In particular, the fact that in the 2019-2020 academic year, 59 training sessions were organized for rural girls and women to receive information, the founder of our opinion on the additional admission quotas for 2020-2021. In general, it is common to follow the systematic work of inviting and supporting us. As a result, in recent years, the number of women receiving state awards at various levels has reached 2,224 people. Currently, the history of more than 300 women awarded the State Prize named after Zulfiya, 10 of them work in government, 30 in various ministries, departments and organizations, 70 in the administration of education.

It is known that as a result of the implementation of reforms, 6 of our scientists working in the field of science in our country today are academicians, 514 doctors of sciences, 4780 candidates of sciences, teachers of public education. and coach for our lives. ekan. If we take into account these statistics, it becomes clear day by day that our cunning have a relationship in such great tasks as creating a new Renaissance foundation.

It can be concluded from the above analysis that the basic foundations of the beginnings of women's interests in our society have been written and are constantly being improved. Therefore, the reforms in the field of gender equality, the conditions created to enable women to take responsibility for themselves in society, to work on themselves, to activate their talents, abilities, intellectual potential. . These processes, in turn, serve as the foundation for a timely, justifiable Renaissance. This means, as always, that "the priority of public policy to provide enterprise and care to our middle-
